

Comparing Your Economy Time Series to NETS

	Your Economy Time Series	National Establishment Time Series (NETS)
Availability	3 months after subject period.	2-3 years after subject year.
Operating establishments	Separates establishments that are verified as in business or are intending to be in business from paper companies – those only registered to hold title to real estate. ¹	Includes operating establishments and paper companies. Records do not indicate establishment status.
Public company information	Includes Central Index Key (CIK) values for 15,000+ companies that are, or have been, publicly traded.	Includes a public/private indicator.
Geographic areas available	US, state, CBSA, county, congressional district, census tract ² and zip code.	US, state, CBSA, county and zip code.
Formats available	Individual records, aggregated numbers, time series graphs via YourEconomy.org, custom graphs, charts and maps.	Individual records.
Data available from	1998	1989
Tracks corporate hierarchy via headquarters/branch links	✓	✓
Reports jobs by establishment	✓	✓
Contact information for key executives	Available upon request.	Available upon request.
Provided by	University of Wisconsin System	Walls & Associates
Reported time period	Annually and semi-annually.	Annually
Source of data	Time series assembled from verified individual establishment records collected by Data Axle.	Time series assembled from individual establishment records collected by Dun & Bradstreet.

¹ See the full database description at <https://youreconomy.org/downloads/YEdatabasedescription.pdf>

² Census tract available from 2019.